

Is your rental agreement as strong as your equipment?

Posted on September 17, 2019 by turben

Make Sure Your Rental Agreement Protects Your Assets

Your rental agreement is your first line of defense against liability, so it's important to have a solid contract in place before any equipment ever leaves your dealership.

To help you with the ins and outs, I partnered with Alex Best, Value Creation Executive at ProSight Specialty Insurance, to provide our 10 top tips for crafting solid rental agreements upfront.

Your equipment is your business—and ours. Contact me at Fairview Insurance Agency for targeted insurance solutions tailored to your dealership's unique needs.